

It's a gude cause - 9th October 1909

Jane Lewis

Chorus

SOPRANO
Free-dom from op-press-ion, lib - er - at-tion, it's a gude cause work-ing for eq-

ALTO
Free-dom from op-press-ion,

TENOR

BASS

4
ual-i - ty, it's a gude cause wo-men sound your voice, it's a gude cause wo-men

lib - er-a-tion it's a gude cause work-ing for eq - ual - i - ty, it's a gude cause wo-men

Free-dom from op-press-ion lib - er-a-tion, it's a gude cause, work ing for eq

Free-dom from op-press-ion lib - er-a-tion, it's a gude cause, work ing for eq

8
sound your voice, it's a gude cause wo-men sound your voice I. Mar - ching in vi-olet white and green, a sound your voice, it's a gude cause wo-men sound your voice. I. Mar - ching in vi-olet white and green, a ual - i - ty, it's a gude cause wo-men sound your voice I. Mar - ching in vi-olet white and green, a ual - i - ty, it's a gude cause wo-men sound your voice I. Mar - ching in vi-olet white and green, a

13

pag-eant of cre- at ive con - vic - tion for the wom en old and young, for the 16

wom-en yet un - born for us all to rise and take our right - ful place Vote for

2. Better to do than wish it done,
 For we cannae afford to sit and blether,
 Never feart to break the law,
 Scottish outrages galore,
 There's no prison can deter the Scottish women
 (Chorus)

3. What's gude for John is gude for Janet,
 We were both born equal on this earth,
 Gude enough to cook the tea
 With the bairns upon her knee,
 Gude enough to take decisions on our futures
 (Chorus)

4. Ye maunna tramp on the Scottish thistle,
 The flower's bright, the stem is thorny,
 And the power of her song,
 Will be rising ever strong
 For there's nothing that can crush her strength and spirit
 (Chorus)

5. A gude cause maks a strong arm,
 When wisdom and passion come together,
 For we've justice in our feet
 As we march down Princes Street,
 Men and women shall be equal in this land
 (Chorus)